Policies

Assignment of accounts to be worked or developed within the sales team of EBSS, should consider the following aspects:

- List of Top 1000 accounts
- Corporate, large companies, global accounts
- Account size
- Location and number of localities
- Number of employees
- Origin of the account

In the event that an account is detected or suggested and that does not belong to any of the previous statutes, the account must be transferred to be attended by the Sales Dealers group.

Accounts may only be assigned by the EBSS Sales Manager, or by the BISG Direct Sr. Sales Manager.

Each of the accounts to be worked by the Sales Team, must be registered correctly in the CRM (Salesforce).

The allocation of an account to a Sales Executive, can only be according to the vertical to which it belongs and to the vertical in which the executive is focused.

It is the responsibility of the Sales Executive to work and demonstrate the activities performed within the account, recording the advances constantly in the CRM without allowing more than four months without activity in a registered account.

No account assignment can be made without prior analysis and review by the Sales Manager EBSS or BISG Direct Sales Sr. Manager.

Responsibilities

Sales Executives New Business

Analyze the vertical markets in which she/he is assigned.

Understand and know the business drivers, trends, particular requirements and general common processes of their assigned markets.

Become a specialist in the assigned sector, always seeking to develop the same language that is handled within its sector.

Generate strategies for attention to each of their accounts, according to its constant analysis, using the tools provided by CANON for research and prospecting of the account (LinkedIn Sales Navigator, 7-Steps for Prospection Calls, SPIN).

The Sales Executive must contact the account and maintain it up to date, developing business opportunities with the different solutions from the portfolio in CANON Mexicana.

It is the duty of the executive to record in a constant and precise way the work performed in each account, updating in the CRM all the information.

In case of detecting any change, report to the Manager to execute the corresponding actions.

Sales Executives Renewals

Develop and execute strategies to ensure the renewal of the contracts that the client has with CANON Mexicana and explore new business opportunities to expand the presence of CANON within the account.

LFS Sales Specialists

The accounts will be assigned according to the sector to which they belong.

In the CRM they must have collaboration access with the Sales Executive.

Same responsibilities established for New Business Sales Executives and Renewal Sales Executives, as it would be the case.

Analyst

Provide the information requested by the sales area about the accounts.

Support in updating and registering accounts in the CRM.

Be updated in the list of Top 1000 accounts and replicate this update in the CRM.

EBSS Sales Manager

The allocation of accounts must consider the vertical to which the company belongs and a balance to establish that each executive has a similar number of accounts within the assigned list.

Share the current account assignment with the different areas within the organization.

Review with the BISG Direct Sales Sr. Manager and Sales Administration area any details that arise from the allocation of accounts by executive.

Possible exceptions

In the event that a client requests the reassignment of Sales Executive, this must be escalated immediately to the EBSS Sales Manager.

The reallocation of the account, would only be possible once it has been demonstrated by the contact or client that any other alternative would mean or put at risk the execution of the business.

Any scenario different from what is indicated in the present must be analyzed carefully.

Considerations

Within CANON Mexicana, employees are invited to share information in case of detecting any business opportunity within a company. In this case, please always share the information first with the EBSS Sales Manager for the correct assignment of the executive.

Doubts or Comments

Please contact the EBSS Sales Manager or, BISG Direct Sales Sr. Manager.
