1. OBJECTIVES

   To establish responsibilities, assure information and communication flow, timelines for closing month impacts, assure registered movements are registered in the corresponding month. To assure all products returned and invoice cancellations are well supported with evidence and merchandise.

2. REACH

   ITCG Departments involved in the Returns, Rejections and Cancelations process.

3. DEFINICIONES

   - Returns: Products that the customer returns once he has received it and it was of his property.
   - Rejects: Products that the customer rejects at the time of delivery due to physical damage of the merchandise.
   - Cancelaciones: Products that the customer rejects partially or totally for reasons outside physical damage.

   In all three cases, a Credit Note is made.

4. PROCESS

   RETURNS

   Canon Mexicana does not accept returns, but in the case that an exception has to be made, the following policy must be followed.

   A. The customer must notify the sales executive that he needs to make a return.
   B. The executive must request authorization from the Sales Administration Management before accepting the return of the client, when the authorization is received, the client will be informed of the answer.
   C. The customer must send the merchandise to Warehouse with the authorization he received from the Canon Sales Executive. Canon doesn´t collect returns.
   D. Warehouse captures in Lotus Notes "ITCG Returns" the customer's data and merchandise received. It is necessary to capture only one document for return to avoid making more than one credit note (some customers reject this option). They will also upload the documents that the client sends within his return and that will later be used to capture prices.
   E. The executive needs to authorize in Lotus Notes the return and check that the Lotus document are returns authorized by them.
