TITLE: ECommerce Pricing Policy – Wholesalers, Resellers & Photoshop
	Validation			VERSION
REF:	DAY	MONTH	YEAR		PAGE 1 OF 3
PLANNING	09	05	18	1 .0

Objective:
The purpose of this policy is to establish the guidelines for the application of prices for the e-commerce channel.
In order to avoid conflicts between different channels and promote fair competition, a pricing strategy has been established where all online competitors must have the same level of prices and promotions for all photo products, video and office equipment.

Scope:
This policy applies to wholesalers, resellers and photoshop in the ecommerce channel.

This policy applies to all ITCG product lines: EOS DSLR Cameras, Lenses, Videocameras, PowerShot Cameras, PIXMA Printers, ImageClass Printers, ImagePrograf Plotters, ImageFormula Scanners, Videoprojector Calculators and Binoculars.

Responsibilities:

From the Planning and Business Intelligence area

1. Provide to sales team the updated price lists (photo, video and office equipment)

2. Provide to sales team team within the first 15 days of the previous month, the monthly promotion plan in order to be applied in the canon store system in advance.

3. Provide to sales team every Thursday, the weekly promotion plan in order to be communicated to dealers.

4. Confirm the monthly promotions calendar to apply the periods of Red Line Week, Lenses Week, Canon Week and Macro Days.

From the sales team

1. Respect the pricing policies established by the Planning and Business Intelligence area. All public prices must be aligned with current price lists.

2. Respect the weekly and monthly promotional plan, shared by the Planning and Business Intelligence area. All promotion prices must be aligned with the established plan.

3. Request approval to the Planning and Business Intelligence area, at least 10 days before any campaign requested from dealers.

4. For any special price, special kits, or additional promotion, for example, Hot Sale, Buen Fin, etc., must be requested approval from the Planning and Business Intelligence area in order to review the general strategy of the ecommerce channel. The special price approved must be registered in the Lotus Notes data base and ensure the complete signature process.

5. Apply the promotions of Red Line Week, Lenses Week, Macro Days and Canon Week within the period established by the Planning and Business Intelligence area.

6. Any price that is not aligned with the current policy or prices should be adjusted the same day as notified by the Planning and Business Intelligence area.
