DEFINITIONS:

Promissory Note: A negotiable instrument. Signed by the Legal Representative as a guarantee of payment for the credit line granted.

Constancia de situación fiscal: A tax identification document issued by the SHCP (Mexican Ministry of Finance and Public Credit).

Credit Application: A document where the client provides information to obtain a credit line.

Credit Line: The maximum amount granted to a client to finance their purchases, based on a risk analysis and their ability to pay.

Checklist: A list of client documents required by the Credit Department.

Bank Reference: A unique and non-transferable code assigned to each client registered in the system, used to identify deposits made at a banking institution.

SLINK = Electronic Invoicing Module

S21 System = System used for customer registration

C&C = Credit and Collections

Therefore = System where requests for new customer accounts, modifications, expansions, or renewals are entered

Salesforce = System where comments are shared between the sales and C&C teams for EBSS renewals

Responsibilities – New Customers

Sales (KAM): The Key Account Manager (KAM) will submit a "New customer" request in the Therefore system, gathering the required documentation for the credit line evaluation. When requesting a monthly credit line amount, the KAM must include the amount in the Therefore system.

Sales Manager will approve the request in Therefore so that Credit & Collections (C&C) can perform the credit evaluation and onboard the customer.

Credit and Collections (Manager and Supervisors):

Perform credit analysis to determine the viability of a credit line.
Issue the credit analysis results.
If approved, register the new client in the S21 and SLINK (Electronic Invoicing Module) systems.
If the application is denied or rejected, notify all involved parties of the reasons or missing information for the decision.

Finalize the Client Registration Request in Therefore with the status "Request completed," attaching as supporting documents in a Word file the images of the document review, the financial analysis, and, in cases of special authorizations, the email from the finance director.

Sales Administration: Verify that all rented equipment has a valid contract and safeguard these contracts. Also, ensure that invoicing is in accordance with the contract terms and/or addendums.

Credit and Collections (Collections Analyst): Monitor the behavior of overdue balances to avoid exceeding the established credit line. If the credit line is exceeded, obtain authorization from credit management and the finance director according to the following approval matrix:

- Credit and Collections Analyst can approve up to 30% of the exceeded credit line.
- Credit and Collections Manager can approve up to 40% of the exceeded credit line.
- Finance Director will approve credit lines exceeded by 41% or more.

Procedure – New Customers

Key Account Manager (KAM) will submit a "New Customer" request in the Therefore system, gathering the required documentation for the credit line evaluation. When requesting a monthly credit line amount, this amount must be included in the Therefore system.

As supporting documentation, the KAM must include the form used to determine the monthly credit line amount. (The calculation of the monthly credit line should consider rental fees, estimated printing overages, estimated sales of consumables, spare parts, and service agreements).

Sales Manager will approve the request in Therefore so that Credit & Collections (C&C) can perform the credit evaluation and customer registration.

Required Documentation for Credit Customer Registration (Applies to all Sales Channels)

- Privacy Notice
- Credit Application
- Constancia de situación fiscal
- Proof of Address
- Financial Statements for the last year, signed by the company's accountant
- Financial Statements for the two years prior, signed by the company's accountant
- Articles of Incorporation
- Procedure for Invoice Collection
- Power of Attorney of the Legal Representative (Not mandatory, only required if C&C requests it)
- Official Identification of the legal representative whose power of attorney authorizes them to sign negotiable instruments (Not mandatory, only required if C&C requests it)
- Promissory Note Signature (Not mandatory, only required if C&C requests it)

For "Dealers" the following is also required:

Signed Non-Exclusive Distribution Agreement Request Form. This document includes additional validations from the following departments:
Sales:

Written request to join the Canon Distributor network.
Organizational chart

Details of Fixed Assets (Vehicles, Land, Warehouse).
Market Strategy or Business Vision.
Service:
Technical Feasibility Questionnaire.
Legal:
Non-Exclusive Distribution Agreement.

For "Retail" clients, the following is also required:
Vendor Agreement. Signed by the Client and Canon Mexicana.

*Non-mandatory documents are for promissory note signing purposes.
Signing a promissory note depends on whether the C&C team identifies any risk in granting a line of credit.
C&C may request other types of collateral if necessary.

Credit Analysis

Collection and evaluation of credit information from applicants to determine if they meet the company's credit standards. (The analysis is performed by the C&C manager or supervisors.)

The received documentation is verified for authenticity and completeness.

A financial analysis is conducted to determine the credit limit amount.

The Credit Analyst must respond to Sales within a maximum of five business days (provided the documentation is complete and correctly uploaded to Therefore). If the documentation is incomplete, the application will be returned to the KAM, allowing another five business days for review.

A promissory note or mortgage guarantee will only be requested to mitigate credit risk and secure payment in case any risk is detected.

When complete the review in the Therefore system, the status will be updated to "Application Completed" if approved or "Application Canceled" if rejected.

Authorization Limits for Credit Line Amounts.

- Credit Management: Viable credit lines meeting requirements and up to $500,000 (Five hundred thousand Mexican pesos) in monthly amount.
- Finance Director: Credit lines exceeding $500,000 (Five hundred thousand Mexican pesos) in monthly amount.
- Finance Director: Credit line deemed not viable or rejected due to unmet requirements or failure to sign a promissory note.

*If applications in Therefore remain inactive for one year without being advanced by the sales team for C&C review, they must be canceled because the documentation would need to be updated due to the elapsed time.

Credit Terms (Payment Terms)

- Payment terms that C&C management can approve are 30 days for all channels
- Payment terms exceeding 30 days must be approved by the finance department for all channels

Special payment terms for the Dealer channel:

Considerations to take into account in credit analyses

The Credit and Collections Manager or Credit and Collections Supervisor will perform the credit analysis based on the Excel file

The authorized parameters to consider in the financial analyses for granting credit lines will be the following:

Solvency Indicator > 2

Liquidity Indicator: Ideal value: $1.35-$2.00

Accounts receivable: Ideal value: 30-60 days

Accounts payable: Ideal value: 30-60 days

Inventory turnover: Ideal value: 30-60 days

Financial cycle: Ideal value: 30-90 days

Profitability (Net Income / Sales): >= 5%

Current Ratio (Current Assets - Inventory / Current Liabilities): >= 1.0

The suggested credit line amount should be used to approve or deny the credit line requested by the sales teams.

If the resulting credit line is less than the amount requested by the sales team, authorization from the Finance Director must be obtained.

If any parameter falls outside the established range, authorization from the Finance Director must be requested.
