OBJECTIVE

Describe the conditions for making a request for maintenance of general support and support for corporate applications.

SCOPE

This policy describes the handling of requests and incidents (tickets) made by users, such as general support for computer equipment and support in corporate applications. It mentions the characteristics that a ticket must contain and how to handle requests for access to corporate applications.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

1. In case any employee of Canon has some incident with the computer or fails in the applications (Lotus Notes, S21, ARCS, etc.) a ticket should be raised through our support system in Lotus Notes, when possible.
2. Lotus Notes support, must enter a ticket through our support system in Lotus Notes; some of the incidents that can be reported are:
   A. Operating errors in applications developed in Lotus Notes
   B. Issues sending / receiving emails
   C. Changes to workflows, such as changing the flow of approvals, entering an additional approval, etc.
      I. This point is regulated in the policy MAINTENANCE TO WORKFLOWS (WORKFLOWS) IN LOTUS NOTES.
   D. Requests for new developments in Lotus Notes that perform certain specific functions.
      I. This point is regulated in the policy MAINTENANCE TO WORKFLOWS (WORKFLOWS) IN LOTUS NOTES.
   E. Changes in current databases to modify your view or operation
      I. This point is regulated in the policy MAINTENANCE OF WORKFLOWS IN LOTUS NOTES.
3. The ticket entered through the support system in Lotus Notes for the points previously mentioned, must comply with these characteristics:
   A. Contain a brief detailed description for requests or incidents
   B. To be requested in time and form to the IT area
   C. Once the ticket has been registered, if access to any corporate application is requested, this request must include a business justification
