OBJECTIVE

In order to ensure proper management of information owned by the company, this policy is intended to establish guidelines for the use of corporate email.

SCOPE

This policy will apply to:

a) Company's employees.
b) Outsourcing personnel.

GENERAL GUIDELINES

A. Do not delete the sent messages until you receive the confirmation message or until they are stored on the hard disk. (To have this option in Lotus Notes communicate with the Systems Department)
B. Do not disclose the content of your email messages or any system password to third parties.
C. Debug your messages, do not let them accumulate and ignore the warnings sent by the server through display windows. Each month the information will be deleted when the limit of allowed space (750MB) has been exceeded, even if the user has not debugged his mailbox
D. The use of email implies the authorization to Canon Mexicana so that it has unlimited access to the content of any information that is sent through the email provided by the company as a work tool, therefore, no violation of any kind shall be construed as the consultation, copy or use of said information

It is strictly prohibited:

1. Deactivate the antivirus.
2. Send and / or forward mails that do not concern the work developed in your area. To send or open any file that the server locks, request it in advance to the IT Department
3. Use mail internally or externally with information unrelated to work activities, such as text, images and / or audio jokes, jokes, chains, pornography, personal photographs, cartoons, etc.

4. Disclose negative information about the company and / or about the equipment sold by Canon Mexicana.
5. Use email or any other system to send confidential information, such as launching new products, existence of products, information on systems and in general, what each Department considers as confidential information, unless such information is sent by express authorization and in writing by the President of Canon.

In case of incurring any of the faults indicated in the previous points, the user will be sanctioned as follows:

I. First time: your external email account will be immediately deactivated for a period of time that will be determined by the Systems Department and of the Area Director to which the offender belongs, and may even be permanent.
II. Subsequent: the user's equipment will be removed and made available to the IT Department until the situation is determined.
III. In case of violation of the provisions of points 4 and 5, your employment contract may be rescinded by the company, without any liability for the latter, without prejudice to the right of Canon Mexicana S. De R.L. of C.V. To demand before the civil or criminal courts the payment of the damages and damages that this situation could cause.

Likewise, the user assumes all responsibility for the sending or handling of unauthorized information, which is why he releases Canon Mexicana S. De R.L. of C.V. of all responsibility for this concept.

Finally, Canon Mexicana S. De R.L. of C.V. reserves the right to publicly deny and by the means it deems pertinent, any confidential information that is published without its express authorization.

The user expresses his knowledge of the policy of use of the electronic mail, as well as his agreement so that the corresponding sanctions are applied to him in case of committing some fault.
